

NEW!

Online Databases

A to Z the USA

Talcott Free Library

What is it?

“A to Z the USA” online database provides a wealth of information about cities, states and counties located in the USA. All 50 states and 5 territories are included. You will find maps, flags, photos, and more in this compressive database available for your use at home or at the library. Teachers and students will find it an invaluable resource for state and local studies.

Where is it on our database?

Visit the Talcott website under “Online Databases”. Click on “A to Z the USA”. You will need your patron barcode and password to login.

Here’s a few features:

The “A to Z the USA” database can be a useful tool for students and teachers for many classroom projects. History, science, and even English teachers can find it beneficial. It includes information on:

- State Facts
- Maps and Geography of each state
- Demographics and Cultures
- History with timelines
- And much more!

Travel? Check out the points of interest and climate of the state before you take a trip.

Moving to a new state? Review the schools in that state, economy, and businesses.

Great for kids of all ages that want to learn more about the USA!
Puzzles and games are included to make learning FUN!

