

TALCOTT FREE LIBRARY
101 EAST MAIN ST.
ROCKTON, ILLINOIS 61072
PHONE 815.624.7511
FAX 815-624-1176

IMPORTANT EVENTS

- CLOSED
September 7th
Labor Day
- New Library
Card Month
- Banned Books
Week Sept. 26–
Oct. 3, 2009

Our website has a new look! Simply click on the images to get more information on any programs! Check out one of new links. www.storycove.com

WEBSITE OF THE MONTH NOVELIST

Talcott's Website (Offers)

Online Catalog
Resource Databases
Genealogy
Kid's Room
TumbleBook
eBooks
eAudiobooks
Thomson Gale
Magazine Database

Talcott News

www.talcottfreelibrary.com

SEPTEMBER 2009

New Library Card Month

For "New Library Card Month", we will be doing several things for promotion. All those signing up for new library cards will automatically receive free video rental coupons to be used at Talcott. Also, new sign-ups will be placed in a drawing for some "fabulous" prizes. We will have three categories of prizes; Children, Young Adults and Adults. Drawing will run through September and winners will be announced at the end of the month.

Banned Books Week

Banned Books Week is an annual awareness campaign in an attempt to protect freedom of speech and freedom of expression by celebrating challenged books

Banned Books Week celebrates freedom of choice

Congratulations to our Celebrated Readers!
September 2009

REBEKAH WRIEDT

Computer Classes

Call the library or stop by the front desk for more information on ongoing computer classes at the library.

ADULT SUMMER READING

Was a great success with 219 entries.

Congratulations Grand Prize Winners.

Julie Whalen-Rockton
Automotive Oil change.
Becky Aylesworth-Image
Gallery gift certificate

and the requirement to keep such material publicly available so that people can develop their own conclusions and opinions.

Held during the last week of September since 1982, Banned Books Week not only encourages readers to

CONGRATULATIONS YOUNG ADULT WIN- NERS!!!

Summer Reading Grand Prize Drawing, 2009.

They are Ben Bischel, Noah Carlsson, Becca Denham, Bethany Fiedler, and Elyse Vischulis. They each won a $15 gift certificate to Wal-Mart plus a 'Read on the Wild Side' bag or travel cup. BIG congratulations to all the readers from YA summer reading program...you did a terrific job and read thousands of books! Remember, new books just keep coming in: new authors, new additions to series, graphic novels...mysteries, real life, romance, adventure, fantasy... Come check some out. ...

examine controversial literary works, but also promotes intellectual freedom in libraries, schools, and bookstores.

Stop by and see our display that week.

