HeritageQuest
Talcott Free Library

What is it?
HeritageQuest Online provides research resources for libraries as well as genealogists. Data includes 1700 to 1950 Federal Census records available as well as material like the Freedmen's Bank Records (1863-1874) and Slave and Slave Deeds Database from 1750 to 1900.

Where is it on our database?
Click on "HeritageQuest". To help you find the right database and PDF, you must have a valid Talcott library card. Enter your barcode and PIN.

HeritageQuest Online includes:

- Genealogy & Local History Collection (Books)
- 1790-1850 U.S. Federal Census
- Freedmen's Bank records (1863-1874)
- Slave and Slave Deeds Database (1750-1900)
- Revolutionary War Pension and Bounty Land Warrant Application Files
- Lewis and Clark U.S. Serial Set

"Hayden Vagle"

NEW

To add to our popular "Talcott Traveling Tales" collection: "Where's Dewey?" a fun way to learn about the Dewey Decimal system. Talcott Traveling Tales are single units of study with lesson plans, books, crafts, supplemental materials, etc. Perfect for school and home use. See our website for complete list.

Computer Classes

Call the library or stop by the front desk for more information on ongoing computer classes at the library.
Monday & Saturday AM.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR!!! Nov. 21, 2009

11am—1pm
Local Author will be here to give a Book Talk on his new Book "MISSION TO THE STARS"

BIG SUCCESS
Family Night Series, "Book-A-Trip Around The World," was a great success. Approx. 20 children and their parents traveled to faraway places through books, crafts, and treats. Special guest speakers shared knowledge and souvenirs from around the globe. Watch for Spring series.

"ADOPT A BOOK" (Starts December 1)

Choose from a selection of brand new, exceptional Children, Young Adult, and Adult books. You can purchase a book in someone's name and have it placed in the library's permanent collection. We will put a special book plate inside, acknowledging your gift and you will receive an "adoption" certificate to give the lucky recipient. A holiday present for your young (or not so young) book lovers!

"CHOCOLATE FOR THE TALCOTT SOUL."

Stop by the library during the annual Christmas Walk. There will be a book sale all weekend. On Sunday, Dec. 6 the library will host it's annual "CHOCOLATE FOR THE TALCOTT SOUL." Join us for delicious treats, musical performances and holiday drawings. Festivities are 1pm-3pm.
