Be sure to have your Talcott library card number and PIN.

You wanted access to bestselling fiction eBooks and audiobooks!

In response to patron demand, Talcott Free Library subscribed to OverDrive® through a group of libraries called OMNI (Online Media of Northern Illinois). OverDrive is an eBook and audiobook distributor that allows patrons free downloads of bestselling fiction and nonfiction titles for reading or listening. To access these eBooks and audiobooks look for the button called OMNI eBooks under "What's New" on Talcott's webpage. www.talcottfreelibrary.com.

Learning how to download:
To help our patrons learn how to use the new OverDrive® system, Talcott will offer several classes to help get you started. The OMNI site also offers My Help! video tutorials that patrons may use at home at omnilibraries.org. Quick Start Handouts will also be available at the Customer Service Desk and on Talcott's website.

Downloading eBooks Class will teach the general steps needed to search for and download eBooks. However, because all eReaders have different downloading procedures, the class will not focus on specific eReaders.

Downloading Audiobooks Class will demonstrate how to download audiobooks to a portable device.

Wednesday, June 29 6:30 pm—7:30 pm
Tuesday, July 19 2:00 pm—3:00 pm
Monday, July 11 2:00 pm—3:00 pm

Deciding which eReader to buy:
You can check the list of supported devices given on the OMNI website. Unfortunately, Kindles do not work with any library eBook subscriptions yet, but many popular models of Sony Readers, Nooks, and iPads are supported by OMNI. Go to: omnilibraries.org.

Due to our new eBooks downloading service through OMNI, we will be discontinuing the NetLibrary service in August. One of the advantages of OMNI is that patrons do not need to create a new user name and password. Just use your current Talcott library card and PIN.
