

How Can You Support Your Library?

Monetary Gift

Talcott Free Library accepts monetary donations to help support the growth of the library. Monetary donations of any size are accepted. This support helps Talcott build their collections, provide programs and improve technology.

Volunteer Opportunities

Teen and adult volunteer opportunities are often available at the library. Volunteers are used for various tasks as well as for specific projects. Stop by the library and ask to fill out a volunteer application.

Adopt-A-Book

In December, Talcott Free Library offers an opportunity for patrons and the community to Adopt-A-Book. You can stop by the library and select your book from the selection provided. Talcott will than bookplate it with your name or a name of a loved one or honored party. You will receive a gift acknowledgement to take with you. It's a great way to memorialize a beloved friend or relative, or a special gift at the holiday season. Your gift is tax deductible as allowed by law.

Used Book Donations

The Friends of Talcott Library accepts donations of gently used books and AV items that are sold in used book sales. Donations are tax deductible. Damaged, musty, and well used books can be recycled in your curbside pick-up, as can encyclopedia sets, magazines, and out of date nonfiction books.

Don't forget to shop the Friends of the Talcott Library used book sales twice a year!
